THINGS TO KNOW AND DO

Hebrews 12-13

The Book of Hebrews is about Jesus. The person who wrote this book in the Bible said that Jesus did what God said, even though sometimes it was hard.

We should try to be like Jesus. We should obey God and show our love to Him and others. Jesus did.

God will help us know what to do. God helped Jesus know what to do.

The writer said, "Be kind and peaceful. Love one another. Be happy with what you have. Praise God. Do what is good."

Jesus did all those things, and we can, too. God will help us.

Tools: Bible, long piece of paper, colored dot stickers, markers, Diaper bag card, tape

- Use a marker to write today's Bible verse across the top of the paper. Tape the paper to the wall at toddlers' eye level.
- Ask a child to help decorate a Bible verse poster. While they work, read the words printed on the paper.
- Say: "Those words are in the Bible in the Book of Hebrews. The person who wrote Hebrews loved Jesus. He wanted people to know that Jesus was God's son."
- Say: "God will help us be kind and loving like Jesus."

Prayer: pray asking God to help us keep our eyes on Jesus all the time—not only when we are sad and discouraged, but also when we are happy and joyful.
